

Welcome to the Nation's Capital!

Dear Neighbor,

As the Congresswoman for Ohio's 13th Congressional District, I have always prioritized bringing our community's voices with me to Washington, D.C. That's only possible when I hear from you—which is why I'm thrilled you are joining us in your Washington, D.C. office to talk about the issues most important to you. This guide will explain what to expect and how to navigate to our office. If you need to reach the office, please contact us at 202-225-6265.

Yours In Service,

Emilia Strong Sykes
Member of Congress
13th Congressional District of Ohio

Our Office Address:

1217 Longworth
House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Visiting Our Office

We're excited to have you in D.C.! When you arrive, you are welcome to wait for your meeting in the front of our office, which holds 4-5 people. We will have water available for you. Restrooms are just down the hall on the 2nd Floor.

The basement (Level B) of Longworth has a few shops and restaurants. The Longworth Cafeteria is open until 3PM when the House is in Session. There is also a Dunkin', Jamba Juice, and a 24/7 Snack Mart. The House Gift Shop is also located in the basement.

Arriving by bus

The closest bus stop to the U.S. Capitol and the Longworth House Office Building is located at INDEPENDENCE AVE SE & S CAPITOL ST SE. The Metrobus system has multiple routes that include stops near the U.S. Capitol. For more information about riding Metrobus, including fares, please visit wmata.com.

Arriving by Metro

There are three Metro stops within walking distance of Capitol Hill:

- Capitol South – Located at First Street between C and D Streets, SE
- Federal Center, SW – Located at the southwest corner of Third and D Streets, SW
- Union Station – Located at First Street, NW, and Massachusetts Avenue

The closest stop to the office is Capitol South. For more information about riding the Metro, please visit wmata.com.

Arriving by car/ride share

There is minimal public parking available near Capitol Hill. The nearest public parking facility is at Union Station, to the north of Capitol Hill. Metered street parking can be found along the Mall to the west of the Capitol Complex and along South Capitol Street, south of Capitol Hill.

To arrive via ride share (Uber, Lyft, etc.), please use 15 Independence Ave SE, Washington, DC 20515 as the arrival address for the most convenient drop off.

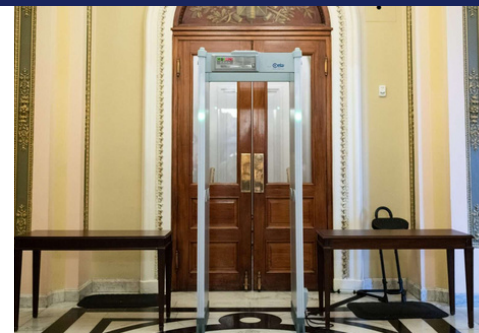

Entering the Building

When you enter the Longworth Building, you will first go through security. Similar to an airport, this will include metal detectors for you to walk through. Additionally, bags and electronics will go through a metal detector. Please see below prohibited items:

- Bags exceeding the size of 18" wide x 14" high x 8.5" deep.
- Firearms to include replica guns and ammunition.
- Weapons (to include but not limited to): Black jack, sling shot, sand club, sandbag, knuckles, electric stun guns, knives (with blades longer than 3"), razors, box cutters, martial arts weapons or devices.
- Explosives and explosive devices.
- Pointed objects to include, but not limited to, knitting needles, letter openers, or other pointed objects deemed a possible threat. Pens and pencils are permitted.
- Sealed envelopes and packages.

To get to the office, take the elevators or stairs to the 2nd Floor and follow signs to Office 1217.
